- » Advocates of Corporate Governance, Risk Management, and Internal Control

In 2020 and beyond, boards and those charged with governance (TCWG) must contend with an increasingly complex and challenging governance landscape in the new normal replete with both current and emerging risks that range from digital to legislative to talent, ethics and culture.

Technologies such as big data analytics, robotics process automation, artificial intelligence, machine learning and blockchain are seen as drivers of the effectiveness and efficiency of boards, regulators and governance professionals in enhancing oversight, compliance and accountability. The Governance Symposium 2020 focusses on how Boards and TCWG can leverage on next generation technologies backed by insightful business, strategic and cultural intelligences—and underpinned by a strong commitment to integrity and zero corruption—to build stronger and more agile governance systems befitting the 21st century corporation in the new normal.

GOVERNANCE SYMPOSIUM 2020

Driving Governance in the New Normal: The Future Begins Now

PROGRAMME

DAY 1
8.30 am	PARTICIPANTS LOGIN TIME AND ANNOUNCEMENT BY EMCEE
9.00 am	WELCOME REMARKS
9.10 am	PANEL DISCUSSION STRENGTHENING CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND ECONOMIC GROWTH DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC As business settles into the new normal, there is a need to align financial strategy in order to manage costs, with a priority on revenue generation and a focus on corporate liability. Understand how Boards in playing their fiduciary roles can ensure that sound corporate governance policies are in place so as to reflect the new way business is to operate. Additionally, there is a need for regulators to ensure a balance between imposing effective regulations and enforcements while being in synchronisation with the market's needs during and in the aftermath of the pandemic. The session will also discuss the Corporate Governance Outlook for the remaining of 2020 and beyond. PANELLISTS MOHAMED RIDZA Managing Partner, Mohamed Ridza & Co DR ELSA SATKUNASINGAM Deputy General Manager, Corporate Secretariat Division, Perbadanan Insurans Deposit Malaysia (PIDM) SUJATHA SEKHA NAIK Governor, Malaysian Institute of Corporate Governance (MICG)
10.15 am	MORNING BREAK
10.25 am	PANEL DISCUSSION GOVERNANCE IN A DYNAMIC BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT: A GUIDE FOR 21ST CENTURY BOARDS Boards in the 21st century are grappling with an increasingly complex business environment rife with emerging and strategic risks that threaten sustainability and long-term value creation such as the COVID-19 pandemic outbreak, influx of technologies and climate change. Besides adapting to the technological revolution, Boards also need to focus on overcoming challenges in other areas such as in governance, talent, culture and strategy. This panel discussion will dive deeper into the issues faced by boards that need to be mitigated and how boards can become more agile and resilient. MODERATOR PANKAJKUMAR BIPINCHANDRA Columnist at Starbiz PANELLIST ALVIN CHIANG Consultant, Russel Reynolds Associates
11.30 am	BUILDING A NATION OF HIGH INTEGRITY AND FREE OF CORRUPTION This session will highlight the Malaysian anti-corruption journey and where we are heading now as disruption technologies emerge and are adopted rapidly across the board. As highlighted in the National Anti-Corruption Plan (NACP) 2019-2023 and in alignment with the UN Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) No. 16–Target 16.5: Substantially Reduce Corruption and Bribery, Malaysia aims to establish a nation of integrity and free from corruption in order to promote stakeholder-centric and sustainable economic growth. This session discusses the vital steps to be taken to build values-based governance against corruption that is stronger, agile and pre-emptive of new emerging risks with Section 17A of the MACC Act 2009 having come into effect on 1 June 2020. SPEAKER NOR'AFIZA SAIM Chief Executive Officer, Malaysian Institute of Integrity (IIM)
12.20 pm	END OF DAY 1
DAY 2
8.30 am	PARTICIPANTS LOGIN TIME AND ANNOUNCEMENT BY EMCEE
9.00 am	WELCOME REMARKS
9.10 am	REDEFINING TODAY'S CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: THE IMPACTS OF NEXT GENERATION TECHNOLOGIES While the Fourth Industrial Revolution has led to radical redesigns of business models, technological advancements have also resulted in cybersecurity threats and breaches of data privacy. Inundated by an array of technologies such as blockchain, big data and artificial intelligence, Boards need to embrace a digital mindset and gain skills to ensure the relevant governance framework and strategies are formulated and applied. This session sheds light on how governance professionals can take advantage of next generation technologies and how they can manage the dark side and risks of technological disruption.
10.00 am	CASE STUDY: FROM WORST TO BEST AND BEST TO WORST IN GOVERNANCE—LESSONS LEARNT This session will share a case study of companies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That have progressed from being the worst to the best in corporate governance • That used to be the best in corporate governance but failed to sustain their reputation
11.20 am	DEALING WITH AN UNKNOWN FUTURE BUT WITH GOOD GOVERNANCE The COVID-19 pandemic crisis has been described as unprecedented, and therefore companies must get creative to develop and sustain business continuity in the new normal. Although the risks are uncertain and volatile, Boards and management must respond with insights and strategies that are aligned with their purpose, values and ethics. Avoid kneejerk panic and impulses to cut costs aggressively, and do consider allocations for talent, technologies and efficient merging of functions to fuel innovation and growth in the evolving new normal. This session looks at how Boards and management can lead courageously in the unknown scenario, while upholding good governance and the public trust. SPEAKERS DAVID BERRY Deputy President, Malaysian Institute of Corporate Governance TAY KAY LUAN Vice Chancellor, International University of Malaya-Wales
