

EVENING TALK AND NETWORKING

USA-China Trade War: Its impact on business and consumers in Asean

Date : 9 October 2019 @ 5:30 pm to 8:00 pm

Venue : ICE Gallery @ Pantai Sentral Park

The ongoing US-China trade war will have profound consequences for global trade and economies moving forward. What impact will it have for Asean businesses, where member countries have significant trade with China? This talk highlights the issue.

OUR SPEAKERS

Rajiv Batra

Rajiv Batra is Chief Southeast Asia strategist. He has worked as a strategist on J.P. Morgan's Asia and Emerging Markets Equity Strategy team since 2005, adding responsibility for Southeast Asia in 2018. His team has been recognized through top-tier rankings in Institutional Investor and Extel polls. Prior to J.P. Morgan, he was with IDBI Bank as a corporate banker.

James R. Sullivan, CFA (Live from Singapore)

James Sullivan is Managing Director of J.P. Morgan Asia ex-Japan Equity Research and Head of APAC Telco Research, holding Asia-based roles in research and fund management since 1998 with leading firms inclusive of Citadel, Millennium, Oaktree, and Credit Suisse. He has been awarded WSJ's Best on the Street award, been named to Global Telecom Business' Top 40 under 40, and earned consistent Telecom sector Institutional Investor rankings. James is a frequent guest host on CNBC, Bloomberg, and Channel News Asia.

PROGRAMME

5:30pm	Registration
6:15pm	USA-China Trade War: Its impact on businesses and consumers in Asean
7:00pm	Refreshment and Networking
8:00pm	End

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- CEOs
- Entrepreneurs
- Directors
- C-Suites
- IROs

PROGRAMME FEE

Member	RM300 per pax (MIRA members, Boardroom, /ACCA/MICG guests)
Public	RM400 per pax