Speaker's Profile

Justin Reynolds
Managing Director, Asia Pacific

Justin Reynolds leads the Asia Pacific region for Ipreo, a premier provider of high quality data, market intelligence and productivity solutions that offers unparalleled capital markets expertise to the investment banking and issuer community.

Justin has worked in the fields of Investor Relations, Corporate Governance, Director Remuneration and Proxy Solicitation throughout EUMESA and Asia Pacific for over 14 years. Prior to joining Ipreo, Justin was a Partner at Sodali, a firm providing Shareholder Response Consulting and Shareholder Transactional services to listed companies, and prior to that, a Director at RiskMetrics Group. In both these roles, he had spent his time advising listed companies on strategies to overcome potential equity and debt risk issues that stem from investor relations matters that may have translated into valuation downgrades pre IPO, or shareholder activism at general meetings.

In 1997, after a time in fund management, Justin joined Georgeson Inc., the US Proxy Solicitor where he worked with companies on defensive and offensive tactics in proxy contests and tender offers. Justin also developed Georgeson's partnerships within EUMESA & Asia Pacific, developing strategies for listed and mutual companies' shareholder bases, during ordinary and extraordinary shareholder meetings. Justin was instrumental in the founding of the Sydney and Johannesburg offices for Georgeson.

Justin has spoken at numerous events throughout Europe, Middle East and Asia, including the House of Lords All Parliamentary Committee, the European Union, Hawkamah, Global Equity Organisation and The Japanese Directors Association.

Justin is a member of the Institute of Directors, Securities Institute, Investor Relations Society and Royal Society for International Relations.
